REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12/8/2005 has been entered.

2. Based on applicant's amendment and personal interview, filed December 8, 2005, see page 6, of the remarks, with respect to amended claim 1, have been fully considered and are persuasive and upon further consideration the 35 U.S.C. 102(b) and 103(a) rejection there of is withdrawn.

3. Claims 1-22 are allowable.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The instant invention generally relates to automatic letter processing and particular to system.

The closest prior art (Rosenbaum and Mampe) do not disclose or suggest, among other things, "at least one video encoding station associated with processor, Means for generating data input and means for receiving operator input of the rule based characters, and an image controller associated with the video encoding station and the processor image controller, means for directing image from processor to station when decoding is unsuccessful and other means for directing the image and data input from station to processor after operator entry of rule based characters.

These features in combination with all of the other features of the claimed invention are neither taught nor suggested by Rosenbaum and Mampe.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
